

A Step-by-Step Guide: Booth Application Process

Companies who exhibited at WEFTEC 2019 or WEFTEC Connect 2020 (virtual event) are eligible to participate in Second Round Sales. Also, WEFTEC 2021 exhibitors who did not participate in Onsite Sales are eligible to participate in. Companies who are eligible for Second Round Sales were sent an email to the Primary Contact and Secondary Contact (if provided) on December 1st, with their unique application link and a booking code.

Companies who are ineligible for Onsite (Advance) Sales or Second Round Sales periods are eligible for General Sales. General Sales is for companies that exhibited at WEFTEC 2018 or prior or are a new WEFTEC exhibitor.

Step 1 Select Booth Size – Indicate the booth size you would like to reserve. For Second Round Sales companies, the price will automatically calculate based on your current membership status. For General Sales companies, or companies exhibiting for the first time you will select your membership status (this will be verified by WEF when your booth space is assigned).

The application must be completed within one (1) hour, or the system will time out and your information will not be saved.

- An email with your booth invoice and additional items, if purchased

Beginning January 2022, WEF will review/assign Second Round Sales booth space applications received in priority point order. WEFTEC 2021 exhibitors, followed by WEFTEC 2021 cancelled exhibitors will be given precedence for booth assignment, in priority point order, followed by WEFTEC Connect 202 and WEFTEC 2019 exhibitors. All Second Round Sales assignments will be notified by February 18, 2022.

General Sales is for companies that exhibited in WEFTEC 2018 or prior or are new WEFTEC exhibitors. General Sales applications will be reviewed in date receipt order following the conclusion of Second Round Sales, estimated beginning March 2022.

Once your application has been processed and approved by WEF staff, you will receive an approval email with confirmation that your WEFTEC 2022 Exhibitor Dashboard has been established. At that time, we encourage you to access your profile to complete additional information about your company and consider upgrading your presence online.
